Re: MCSLC

The Mathematics and Computer Science Learning Center (MCSLC) located in Gillet Hall room 222 will be staffed and available for general use as of Tuesday, September 10th, 2013. Tutors will be on hand, cost-free, to assist students seeking help in mathematics. Any students in Math 030, 104, 132, 171, 172, 174, or 175 can work with a tutor in the Center. We can also handle PYTHON, JAVA, MAPLE, statistics, math related topics, and Spanish speaking tutoring on a limited basis. Please be advised that the Center and the adjacent Annex (Gillet 220) also has resources installed on computers which will allow for learning concepts and skills in the following areas:

PRE-ALGEBRA GEOMETRY
ALGEBRA
COMPASS MATH ACT EXAMINATION

TRIGONOMETRY & SPECIAL TOPICS
PROBABILITY & STATISTICS
CALCULUS
LINEAR ALGEBRA

The resources includes exposition, review, and practice. For a complete listing of topics within the groups above, please visit the MCSLC.
